

Angular Tasks

Task # 1

On click event change background color, text color of div tag text

Task # 2

Find square & cube of number on click event use as radio button. Take number as hard coded for time being & display the result in another text box, square & cube respectively.

Task # 3

Apply Class Binding to button, when button on click to change text style to italic & text color should be change.

Task # 4

Set image to div on click on button.

Task # 5

Create web page containing Employee having fields id, name, salary & two buttons name viz add & remove button. When we click add button dynamic value is added also remove the particular data if click on remove button.

Task # 6

Using two-way binding, web page contains two input text & one button. One input text is used to take input from user another input text is used to display output. Find number is prime number or not click on button.

e.g., input = 3 (From first input text) output = Number is prime number (on 2nd input text display this string).

Task # 7

Validate the Log in page using two-way binding & display alert message “Validated Successfully!! “.

Task # 8

Check given number is even or odd using ngIf directive.

Task # 9

Change the width of input box when user enter the number in input box (Asked in interview).

Task # 10

Set image to div and on mouse hover change the transparency/opacity of the image Hint use opacity css property & also use mouseout event & mouseover.

Task # 11

Write a Program to send rating (as number) from parent component to child component. In child component check whether rating is less than 6 then apply background color

javabyKiran
java | selenium | python